

GDPR - Privacy Policy – FIN Funky Interior

At FIN Funky Interior, we strive to be ethical, simple and straight forward to our customers. This privacy policy explains our intention to also be good to your data with clear explanations of what information we collect and how we use it.

The personal information we collect about you

We collect information from you directly when you contact us (by phone or by mail) or when you buy from us. In all cases, we only collect the minimum amount of personal information necessary to meet our purposes.

We collect the following information about you:

- full name
- physical address
- phone number
- email address

How we use your personal information?

To meet our core purpose – making it easy to inform you on new products that appear on our website – we need to use your personal information to mail you. When shipping products you've bought from us, we do need this personal information as well.

Who we share your personal information with?

We do not share your personal information with anyone outside FIN – Funky Interior, except when you give us the permission to do so.

Where we store your personal information and how we keep it safe?

Wherever your personal information is stored, we take reasonable steps to ensure that it is protected against unauthorised access, modification, use, or disclosure.

Exercising your privacy rights

You have some important privacy rights and we're committed to making sure you can exercise them easily. This is part of our focus on being ethical, simple, and good to your data. To make a complaint, or ask a question about your information, please contact us by:

- using our contact form on our website
- emailing us at fin@funkyinterior.be
